About AIU

The establishment of the Inter-University Board (IUB) of India on March 23, 1925 marked a pivotal moment in the dynamic landscape of Indian higher education, the inception of the Inter-University Board (IUB) in 1925 marked a transformative leap towards unified excellence. Recognizing the critical need for a cohesive platform to streamline university activities and safeguard the welfare of students and institutions alike, the IUB emerged as a beacon of collaboration across diverse domains such as education, culture, and sports. Over time, this visionary initiative evolved into the esteemed Association of Indian Universities (AIU) in 1973, a premier institution that stands at the forefront of India's educational journey. This metamorphosis was not merely administrative but a testament to the unwavering commitment to fostering a culture of excellence and global leadership.

Since its inception, the AIU has been an instrumental force, propelling the growth and advancement of higher education across the nation. Through its tireless efforts, the AIU has cultivated a harmonious environment, fostering collaboration among a myriad of university types, including conventional, open, deemed, state, central, private, and nationally significant entities. With a steadfast vision to emerge as a dynamic apex organization, the AIU champions initiatives aimed at fortifying and elevating Indian higher education to global prominence. Through relentless advocacy, strategic collaboration, and impactful partnerships with governmental and international entities, the AIU is steadfast in its mission to position Indian universities as undisputed leaders in education, research, and extension activities. At its core, the AIU is driven by a passion for excellence, committed to nurturing a holistic educational ecosystem that transcends borders and fosters a legacy of brilliance. Through its unwavering dedication, the AIU continues to inspire and empower, forging a path towards collective progress, innovation, and transformative change.

About AIU National Women Student Parliament 2023-24

The Association of Indian Universities (AIU) is a premier organization in India that represents and coordinates the Indian university system. It acts as a liaison between universities and the government, as well as other national and international bodies.

The "AIU National Women Student Parliament 2023-24" is an initiative organized by the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) at Parul University, aimed at providing a platform for female students to engage in discussions, debates, and activities related to leadership, parliamentary rights, and women empowerment. The Women's Student Parliament is designed to promote democratic values, leadership skills, and civic engagement among students. This initiative aims to provide a platform for the growth and development of women in their youth tapping into their potential and strength through the National Women's Student Parliament. As India stands as one of the largest democratic countries in the world, this program empowers youth in India to embrace democratic values, fostering discipline, tolerance and respect for rules in discussions.
