Association of Indian Universities (AIU)

The Association of Indian Universities is an Apex Advisory Body on Higher Education mandated by the Ministry of Education, to determine the equivalence of foreign degrees and conduct Youth Affairs & Sports Activities in Higher Education Sector in India. At present, AIU has about 985 member universities (central, Institute of National Importance, state and private universities), including 16 overseas universities, and is serving the Higher Education Sector for the last 97 years. Many national luminaries have served this organization in different capacities, and the most prominent examples are Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Dr. Zakir Hussain, and Dr. Syama Prasad Mukherjee who have served as Presidents of AIU. The organization has worked as an intellectual resource of the country and has contributed to the policy processes of the government and its agencies.

AIU has been annually organizing the Inter-University Youth Festivals (UNIFESTS) since 1985 at the Zonal and National level where a large number of youth artists from member universities and it's about 45000 affiliated colleges participate. These festivals play a significant role in promoting in our youth, a pride of Indian culture and an awareness of youth identity. AIU is the only nodal agency in the entire country for organizing the inter-university youth programs for about 39 million youth students of the Higher Education Sector in India. Also, this is the only establishment where the above-cited youth programs can be conceptualized and implemented for the students the zonal, national, as well as international level. In continuation of our endeavors and addition to the above-mentioned youth festivals, the AIU has launched the organization of Asian University Youth Festival (AUFEST), International Youth Festival, National Women Student Parliament, National Moot Court Competition, National Adventure/Tracking Camp and National Qawwali Competition etc. From the current session, AIU has earmarked the entire country in eight zones for the smooth conduct of Youth Affairs Programs.

2. GULBARGA UNIVERSITY, KALABURAGI , KARNATAKA

Gulbarga University was established on 10th September, 1980. It was a P.G. Centre of Karnataka University from 1970 to 1980. The University has been catering to the needs of higher education in Kalayan Karnataka region of Karnataka State which is considered to be a backward region and contributing a great deal for the development of this region through teaching, research and extension programmes. It is situated in the North Eastern part of Karnataka; it has the jurisdiction of five Revenue Districts viz., Kalaburagi, Bidar, Raichur Yadgir Koppal. It has a main campus at Kalaburagi and has one P.G. Centre, at Aland, It is an affiliating University having affiliated colleges. The University is opened to all sections of the society and promotes Co-education. The University has six faculties viz., Arts, Commerce, Education, Social Science, Science and Technology and Law, comprising of 34 Departments of Post-Graduate Studies and Research on the main campus and P.G. Centers

This region has rich historical heritage. Buddhist settlement sites. Edicts of Ashoka in the form of slab inscriptions at Sannathi in Kalaburagi District are some of the heritage sites. Famous Kingdoms like the Rastrakutas of Malkhed, Chalukyas of Basavakalyana, Bahamani Emperors of Kalaburagi have ruled this region. This region also has a very rich cultural and literary heritage. The very first known work in Kannada Literature, 'Kaviraja Marga' was produced by Srivijay during the regime of the famous Rastrakuta emperor Nrupatunga during 850 AD. This region has witnessed a profound revolutionary movement during the 12th Century AD led by Basaveshwara. It was a movement of spiritual enlightenment, social equality dignity of labour and respect for women. Gulbarga became a bastion of the philosophical school of suffism and produced a very eminent Saint and Scholar Hazrat Khwaja Banda Nawaz in 15th century. Kalaburagi is blessed with another famous saint shri Sharnabasaveshwara in the 19th Century.

Gulbarga University has organized the South-Zone and most coveted Decennial Inter-University National Youth Festival in 1993-94, 2022 -23 and 1994-95 respectively under the sponsorship of AIU and Department of Youth Affairs and Sports Government of India, New Delhi.
